Introducing Generations™ by Batesville® A new line of caskets for sustainable-minded families

Families want and will invest in products that minimize their environmental impact. By choosing a Generations casket, they can honor their loved one while also making a commitment to the generations who follow.

Generations features 3 new casket designs using fast-growing, abundant U.S. hardwoods, water-based finishes with low VOCs, natural cotton interiors, and minimal metal elements. Crafted for use in burial or cremation, Generations makes a statement in the showroom with distinct styles and aesthetic qualities that appeal to today's environmentally-conscious families.

Every day we have countless chances to show someone how much we care. Funeral services or memorial services are deeply embedded in one's culture and unique history. They vary in traditions and reflect a vast array of values and beliefs. With all the wide ranging variations around the globe, one thing remains true of them all; it is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the life of your loved one, honor their memory and reflect on the relationship you shared.
